Leadership and Jikishoan

Ekai Korematsu Osho is Abbot and Teacher of Jikishoan Zen Buddhist Community and Director of the Zen and Integrated Buddhist Studies (IBS), Jikishoan's Buddhist education program. He has received Dharma transmission from Ikko Narasaki Roshi and taught for over 45 years in USA, Japan, India and New Zealand, and since 1998 in Australia.

Please refer to the Jikishoan website: www.jikishoan.org.au for further information about the retreat.

How to apply

Submit an Application Form (pages 1 and 2) including a $75 deposit by Sunday July 30.

Return this form by email to C-course@jikishoan.org.au or post to Tony Crivelli, PO Box 196, Heidelberg West, Vic 3081.

Alternatively, hand it in to the desk at Sunday Sanzen-kai.

Applications received after the closing date may not be considered. Numbers are limited and priority may be given to people staying for the full seven days.

Timely submission of applications assist with the running of the retreat.

Vision

Jikishoan Zen Buddhist Community Inc. is a not-for-profit organisation founded in 1999. Our vision is to offer transformative Buddhist learning, experience and cultivation for everyone. Its Aim is:

- To promote the teachings, practice and realization of Shakyamuni Buddha in Australia for the welfare and peace of all.
- To encourage the teachings, methods and practice of all the Buddhas, ancestors and patriarchs associated with the Zen Schools of the Mahayana tradition.
- To promote, encourage, develop and assist the study and practice of Buddhism in Australia with special emphasis on the teachings and methods of Dogen Zenji and Keizan Zenji.
